

HOLISTIC APPROACH TO DISCOVER PURPOSE IN JESUS CHRIST

IDENTITY

Objective

WORTH

Subjective

The self-constructed belief one holds about oneself. (i.e. name, age, gender, race, religion, heritage)	The overall emotional evaluation of his/her worth
More of a cognitive aspect about self	More of an evaluation of one's self
Principles are related	Evaluated on principles one has about oneself
Comparison is not a factor	Comparison is a major part, which influences evaluating one's own self in comparison of others
Highlights facts about one's own self; thus, it doesn't consider the value of who they are	Evaluation to find and feel the worth and value in one's self
